

for Om

Clicking on “for Om” above takes you to the AVA’s documentary of Om’s mother Leah Moses describing Om along with her relationship with Om’s father, the various abuses that he afflicted upon her and her children that ended in the father murdering Om after the second custody evaluator recommended Om joining his younger sister with full custody to Leah. This happened after 14 years of Leah trying to protect herself and her children in family court because her concerns were rejected by CPS and law enforcement. Because of the emotional intensity of this video, AVA has chosen to post it in this manner rather than like AVA’s other videos. Please read the cautionary statement before watching the video.
